

NCFM 50th Season Celebration and Recognition Saturday, October 11th at 10:00 am

“Boy does time fly by!” Yes, we only have a handful of Market days left.

In honor of our 50 years/ 10 decades/ 1 half century old NCFM we will be having a brief Celebration and recognition of service to our community, church, vendors, volunteers and all others enjoying this treasure all these years. We will also decare winners of our weekly Scavenger hunt.

Please join us in the fresh air at this Market Event on Sat. Oct. 11th at 10:00 am while you visit friends, family and your neighbors and shopping for your produce and other needs.

The NCFM continues to be a gem on the West Side and has been an annual benefit to our Local Families and Community. This longevity of the NCFM is certainly a testament to the value and dedication of our patrons, community and our local farmers and vendors for all these years. Thankyou all for your support. Sincerely, John Standing and the 50th NCFM Steering Committee.
